

PARENT-TEEN DRIVING AGREEMENT

RECITALS

WHEREAS: A written Parent - Teen Driving Agreement is purposeful... because it helps parents protect teens by holding them accountable for their driving behavior and life choices.

WHEREAS: A written Parent – Teen Driving Agreement is personal...because both make promises to each other that connect them in a personal and meaningful way.

WHEREAS: A written Parent-Teen Driving Agreement is powerful...because it lists family rules a teen must abide by in order to obtain a driver's license; and maintain the privilege to drive once teen has been issued a license. Further, it lists consequences for violating a family rule or vow. And finally, it lists rewards for driving ticket free for 12 months following the date license was issued.

THEREFORE: As a parent and teen who recognize the value and benefit of a written driving agreement, we enter into the agreement below in a spirit of love, mutual respect, and trust.

AGREEMENT

We the undersigned agree:

This agreement will begin on the date teen is issued a permit to learn to drive and end on teen's 18th birthday.

Parent(s) may modify this agreement at their discretion.

To have an open honest and mature discussion about any violation of a family rule or vow if asked to.

Teen shall abide by family rules listed herein, in order to obtain a driver's license and to maintain his/her privilege to drive once a license has been issued.

While learning to drive, the consequence for violating a family rule may include extending the date beyond which teen is eligible to obtain a driver's license from the state.

Once licensed, the consequence for violating any family rule or vow that is brought to the attention of the parent will be determined based on the totality of the circumstances.

The consequences for receiving a citation for a moving violation are listed herein.
